Intro: D C G

G

I hear that lonesome whippoorwill

G7

He sounds too blue to fly.

C

G

The midnight train is whining low,

D

G

I'm so lonesome I could cry.

G

I've never seen a night so long

G7

When time goes crawling by

C

G

The moon just went behind a cloud

D

G

To hide its face and cry.

G

Did you ever see a robin weep,

G7

When leaves began to die?

C

G

That means he's lost the will to live,

D

G

I'm so lonesome I could cry.

Solo

G

The silence of a falling star

G7

Lights up a purple sky

C

G

And as I wonder where you are

D

G

I'm so lonesome I could cry.

END.
